Dearest Falk's,

Just a few lines to let you know I'm in the best of health and hoping this letter finds you all the same.

I been unable to write for the last week or so. You see we're getting ready to ship to Shanghai from Shanghai from, I hope.

Tell Falk's, what's new?
How is the weather over there?
We are having beautiful weather.

Yesterday, some of the boys and I took a ride

to a next centre and did we have a good time.

Buy it sure is good to have a can of beer.

Well folks till to hear from me again
So-long be-good and don't worry.

May-God-Bless you all your loving son
Eddie
