

My dear great friend.

I am an Allied soldier. I have come to Burma not as an enemy to the Burmese people but I have come to fight the Japs and drive them out of Burma as soon as possible.

If you can take me to the nearest Allied Army Camp, my Government shall give you a reward in money.